

Samantha Spurrier earned her Bachelor of Music from the University of Alberta.

She is currently a sought-after solo and ensemble player across Alberta.

She is an accomplished orchestral performer, having played with the Edmonton Symphony Orchestra, Concordia Symphony Orchestra, Edmonton Youth Orchestra, Edmonton Winds, National Youth Orchestra of Canada, and many more.

Samantha also enjoys performing with chamber groups and choirs: memorable performances have included Bella Baroque, Vocal Alchemy, the Yellowknife Choral Society, and the River City Chamber Orchestra.

She frequently plays with other Edmonton-area musicians. Samantha teacher and performs regularly at special events across the Alberta Capital Region and beyond.
