

BLACK TIE & PYJAMAS

a fundraising event for

For 114 years, the Edmonton Music & Speech Arts Festival has provided an opportunity for participants to perform locally in an educational setting! Like all non-profit organizations, we have been hit hard by COVID-19 restrictions, including the postponement of our Casino. With the cost of staging a large event in these continued, uncertain times, we are offering an exceptional opportunity for Edmontonians to support the Festival with less expense and inconvenience.

If you are like us, while attending charity actions, you have probably chewed on more rubber chicken than the average Golden Retriever. As an alternative, we would like to invite you to a unique fundraising dinner that won't result in a late night and the acquisition of auction items you don't want.

Just think...

No babysitting fees!

No driving!

No tux!

No fancy cocktail dress; therefore, no Spanks!

Eat whatever you want; with whomever you want!

Have that extra glass of wine lounging in your favourite pyjamas and slippers!

The best thing is...It's at your house!

YOUR TICKET TO THIS EVENT IS $50 (OR MORE), and unlike that auction item, your donation over $20 is tax deductible.

Help us ensure that this valuable outlet for artistic expression continues its legacy.
