

Amy Boyes is a piano and theory teacher in Warman, Saskatchewan. Her students regularly participate in festivals, recitals, and examinations.

A council member of the Canadian Music Festival Adjudicators' Association, Amy has adjudicated music festivals throughout from PEI to ON to MB, both online and in-person. She is also a member of the Royal Conservatory's College of Examiners for both piano and history.

She holds Associate Diplomas (ARCT) in Piano Performance and Teaching from the Royal Conservatory of Music and a Licentiate Diploma from Trinity College (UK) in Piano Recital. She studied at Brandon University with Alexander Tselyakov (BMus) and at the University of Alberta with Janet Scott-Hoyt (MMus).

As a speaker, Amy has presented at Music Teachers' National Association (MTNA) and CFMTA Conferences in both Canada and the US on topics as such studio management, strong interpersonal relationships with students and diversifying students' repertoire.

Amy's music-related articles have been published in the American Music Teacher Magazine, Canadian Music Teacher Magazine, and Piano Magazine.

Currently, Amy is the Public Relations Committee Chair for the Canadian Federation of Music Teachers' Associations and is Vice President of the Saskatchewan Registered Music Teachers' Association.

Amy remembers with great fondness her time as a student in Edmonton and is delighted to return for this event.
