

Samantha Spurrier earned her Bachelor of Music in harp performance from the University of Alberta and is currently a sought-after solo and ensemble player across Alberta. She is an accomplished orchestral performer, having played with the Edmonton, Saskatoon, and Winnipeg Symphony Orchestras, Calgary Philharmonic Orchestra, Edmonton Winds, National Youth Orchestra of Canada, and many more. She currently serves as the principal harpist of the Regina Symphony Orchestra. Samantha also enjoys performing with chamber groups and choirs:

memorable performances have included Bella Baroque, Vocal Alchemy, and the Yellowknife Choral Society. She frequently plays with other Edmonton-area musicians. Samantha teaches and performs regularly at weddings and special events across the Alberta Capital Region and beyond.