

Canadian Flautist, Mary Sullivan, is coveted as a masterful performer, instructor, clinician, and adjudicator. She is also sought after as a movement and mindfulness specialist, rooted in her work as a Yoga and Meditation teacher.

Mary has performed regularly with the Calgary Philharmonic, Calgary Opera, Theatre Calgary, and Red Deer Symphony. Mary is passionate about performing the works of living composers, and she enjoys a rich performing and recording history with Land's End ensemble.

A dedicated pedagogue, Mary was a member of the flute faculty at Mount Royal Conservatory for over 20 years. She has served as the masterclass instructor at Valhalla Summer School of Music and the Calgary Regional Summer Band Workshop, and has been a sessional instructor at the University of Calgary. Mary's students have flourished in MRU's Academy and Advanced Performer Programs, examinations, festivals, and auditions. Many have gone on to pursue music degrees at universities across Canada. Mary is in high demand as a leading clinician across Alberta, and has adjudicated festivals in Alberta, Washington, and Oregon.

Mary Sullivan received her Bachelor of Music degree in Flute Performance from Indiana University as a student of Jacques Zoon, Peter Lloyd, and Kate Lukas. She completed her Master of Music Degree in Flute Performance at Louisiana State University as the teaching assistant to Dr. Katherine Kemler. Mary is very proud of the incredible musical upbringing she received as a student in Edmonton with Shelley Younge, Elizabeth Koch, and Dot Speers.
