

Murray Visscher has performed a wide variety of music for audiences in Canada and the United States. Although his formal education is primarily in Classical music, his diverse background has put him on stage with some of Canada's elite jazz, folk, rock, and fiddle artists. Murray's recent efforts include many premières of new music written for the Oberon Guitar Trio (along with colleagues Ralph Maier and Brad Mahon).

Mr. Visscher is in demand as an instructor and educator and served on the faculties of Mount Royal University Conservatory and Ambrose University in Calgary, Canada. He has served on the editing team for the Royal Conservatory of Music's guitar series and adjudicates frequently for RCM as well as at festivals and competitions throughout Western Canada.

Mr. Visscher's students include several RCM Gold Medal winners as well as finalists and winners of the Guitar Foundation of America competition and the Northwest Guitar Festival competition. His students are frequent winners at the Alberta Music Festival, the National Music Festival and the Canadian Music Competition.
